

RURAL SOUTHERN BRITTANY
BEAUTIFULLY SITUATED HOUSE
CLOSE TO THE NANTES TO BREST CANAL
NEAR TO CHATEAUNEUF DU FAOU
3 BEDROOMS. SLEEPS 6 PEOPLE/+baby

Situated in a protected Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, right on the bank of the river Aulne, a very peaceful and idyllic location, surrounded by picturesque scenery, not disturbed from any traffic noise, but still with easy access to the beautiful clean beaches of the area (35 km; 30 min. by car).

The house consists of a large comfortable Breton-style living room, 3 bedrooms, a well equipped kitchen, one bathroom and separate WC, and can accommodate up to 6 people /+ baby. The whole living area is 120 m<sup>2</sup> plus a garage (25m<sup>2</sup>), used as a store room. There is a large garden (2.400m<sup>2</sup>) which is mainly lawned with many mature shrubs and trees.

Close to the Nantes to Brest Canal this centrally situated house is an ideal touring base for the whole of Brittany.

Situated just outside the small town of Chateauneuf du Faou (5 km) in a rural area, it is still close to all amenities.

The ancient port of Roscoff is 1 hour drive away as is Morlaix with its large Hypermarket. Half an hour by car will take you to the beautiful historical towns of Chateaulin, Le Faou or Locronan. And only 35 km away by motorway lies the capital of Finistere: Quimper

Nestling in the peaceful wooded Aulne valley the town of Chateauneuf du Faou is surrounded by picturesque scenery and is within easy access of the beautifully clean beaches of the area: especially the large sandy beaches in the Gulf of Douarnenez.

Visit the nearby Armorique National Park with its scenic views and walks set in 95 000 hectares of moorland, lakes and wooded areas.

Huelgoat with its Trembling-Rock is another place of interest, a good place for rambling and fishing.

Or simply stroll or cycle on the riverside path (the old towpath) along the Aulne (Nantes to Brest canal), perfect for safe cycling without any gradient.

If you want a calm and relaxing but interesting holiday then Chateauneuf du Faou is the place to stay. There are many country walks, coarse fishing immediately in front of the house, as well as trout and salmon fishing nearby.

The Centre ULAMIR with indoor swimming pool and tennis court offers numerous activities for children, teenagers and adults, including archery, horse riding and tennis. Where you also can rent boats, canoes, bicycles or horses.

Just outside the town in the direction of Laz is the Parc de Loisir with its 550 metre Piste de Luge (toboggan run) and a stones throw from there is the beautiful Chateau Domaine de Trevarez, set in hundreds of acres of parkland, with its interesting exhibitions.

The Nantes to Brest Canal running through Chateauneuf du Faou is the place to amble away the evenings, calling at the local bars and restaurants nearby, or for fun take an evening boat trip along the canal. Whoever you are there will be something that appeals to you.
